Kitchens are spaces that make for memorable moments. It's where conversations and coffee meet.
Where love is stirred and food is relished together. It's here that warmth and memories linger.

At Godrej, we ensure that this space is rightly pampered. Our wide range of kitchens with various designs, finishes and accessories offer you plenty of options to craft a space you are comfortable in. So, now you know what holds the secret to your happiness.

Standard Kitchens

Over the years, innovation and functionality have played a big role in everything we do. Our standard kitchens are crafted to adapt to any space. An empty space is all you need to let our standard kitchens work its magic. The thoughtfully designed modules are quick and easy to assemble and disassemble. Go ahead, design a modular kitchen you've always wanted.

Pre-fabricated Kitchens

The pre-fabricated kitchens are intelligently woven around your in-built platform. You can add trolleys and shutters with machine-pressed cool finishes to enhance the kitchen. Our kitchens are designed to be well-organised and aesthetically appealing from outside as well as inside.

Steel Kitchens- Built to last

Born from deeply researched Indian practices, our steel kitchens are just what perfect kitchens are made of. The kitchens with their galvanised steel body easily take on everyday cooking habits, making your space friendlier and comfortable. The accessories are specially designed to further ease your life. And the impeccable after-sales service takes the steel kitchens a notch higher.

Benefits of steel kitchens:

- Protection against exposure to oil and water • Durable in a moist kitchen environment • No breeding of pests • Termite-proof • Functional & sturdy • High-precision factory finished kitchens
- Galvanized steel framework with epoxy polyester powder coating • Top-notch Stainless Steel Wire Baskets
- Easy maintenance • 15-year warranty* • Plethora of accessory and hardware options including SS-304 baskets, soft closing drawer systems, lift-ups & hinged doors

Willow Wok Kitchens – Raised tough

Our WILLOW WOK kitchens are bred tough. They are raised keeping in mind the cooking conditions - a hassling fusion of heat, oil and water. It's where we marry ergonomic designs and top quality materials with state-of-the-art technology to give you a great looking kitchen that works effortlessly in the space that you have.

Benefits of Willow Wok kitchens:

- The body is made of boiling water-proof Prelaminated Marine Ply, making it ideal for Indian cooking
- Ergonomically designed • Wide range of high-end shutter materials and finishes available
- Easy to maintain without special care • Utmost precision and impeccable finish • Plethora of accessory and hardware options including SS-304 baskets, soft closing drawer systems, lift-ups and hinged doors

Parallel Kitchens

When in space crunch, think parallel. Our parallel kitchens complement any compact space and bring out the best from what is available. Its excellent design sense makes cooking both convenient and efficient. It includes two parallel units, one which can be used for washing & cooking and the other as an additional workspace or for storing utilities.

Single Wall Kitchens

All contemporary homes find their perfect match in single wall kitchens.

It's for a generation that lives in these studio apartments with open kitchens, combined with dining areas. A sleek single wall kitchen makes the dining space a stylish setting. This design facilitates cabinet storage and convenience in placing kitchen appliances, for easy reach.

L-shaped Kitchens

Let your conversations begin here. The L-shaped kitchens make for a warm place where entertainment, food and stories happen. The new-age home designs are, today, enabling to contemporary, open-plan layouts and studio style living. The kitchens have a continuous working platform where the corner can be fitted with high-end kitchen equipment for a sleek finish and better space utilisation.

U-shaped Kitchens

Do you love experimenting with food? Then a U-shaped kitchen is what your home needs. It is specially designed to give you plenty of room to experiment and explore the culinary world. This layout has two opposite ends of the platform running parallel to each other with one end closed and the other open. A U-shaped kitchen facilitates easy access to kitchen appliances, storage, wall cabinets and could even have a small eating area at one end of the kitchen.

FIND THE PERFECT MATCH

A good kitchen layout must work harmoniously with its counterparts to bring out excellence and a clutter-free space. This philosophy drives through not only our designs but also its complementing accessories. The ergonomically designed cabinets, cupboards and drawers fit in any space, help arrange the utilities in a compact space and make your kitchen user-friendly. Our various miscellaneous accessories like handles, racks and hinges further enhance the kitchen.
